

Jay Godfrey

Jay Godfrey is a Seminar Designer for the United Methodist Seminar Program on National and International Affairs at the Church Center for the United Nations. As a Seminar Designer, he custom-designs and facilitates educational seminars on social justice issues from a perspective of faith. Prior to working for the Seminar Program, he served as a Mission Intern in a ministry of reconciliation among Muslim and Catholic youth in Bosnia and Herzegovina. He also served as a US-2 missionary, coordinating community programs for the Upper Sand Mountain Parish in northeastern Alabama. Jay holds a Master of Divinity with a concentration in Church and Community Ministries from the Candler School of Theology, Emory University. He is married to Heather White, a professional dancer specializing in musical theater and liturgical dance choreography and performance. They have one son, Myles Thomas Godfrey.

And who is my neighbor?

[Luke 10:29] But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity...

[39] Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.'

Jesus said to him,

Go and do likewise.

Who is My Neighbor?

Members of the Nebraska Conference traveled to New York City in May 2011 to learn about issues surrounding immigration, and how it connects to our faith. The seminar, organized by Jay Godfrey, was so informative and inspirational, the group wanted to make it available to even more Nebraskans.

Come to learn about the history of U.S. immigration, the process of immigrating today, why people choose to immigrate, the environment of detainment centers and process of deportation. Reflect on the life of Jesus as a baby refugee in Egypt to his acceptance and healing of the "other". Enjoy fellowship with other passionate Christians, and bring a friend to brainstorm how to make a difference in your church and community, and learn from those who already have!

Exodus 23:9

You shall not oppress a resident alien; you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Who Should Attend?

All men and women who have an interest in immigration's impact on Nebraska and how we can respond through a Christian perspective.
